

CAPE TOWN WIRELESS USER GROUP

BRAND IDENTITY GUIDE - VERSION 1.0 – August 2013

---

About the Cape Town Wireless User Group Brand:

The Cape Town Wireless User Group (or CTWUG) is unique in that much of the content and in fact, group infrastructure is user generated. It is therefore important that the brand is not diluted or changed too much from what is detailed in this guide.

READ THIS GUIDE BEFORE USING THE CAPE TOWN WIRELESS USER GROUP BRAND ELEMENTS IN YOUR OWN DESIGNS OF SUB-LOGOS, CLOTHING, WEBSITES OR GRAPHICS.

THE CTWUG LOGO

There are two iterations of the CTWUG logo – one for white or light colour backgrounds and one for black or dark colour backgrounds:

The logo is created using the Arial Standard font face for easy recreation.

The Cape Town Wireless User Group Logo is the pinnacle of the group's identity, and therefore the most controlled element of the brand. Please observe the following rules for its use:

The following is ACCEPTABLE:

- ✓ Using the logo anywhere you would like to in any form above provided it does not cast the group in a negative light.
- ✓ Using the logo with and without the text underneath it.
- ✓ Making modifications to the OUTSIDE of the logo to customise it for your use. The following are examples of this:

The following is NOT ACCEPTABLE:

- ✗ Modifying the colours and/or design of the logo.
  - ✗ Changing the orientation of the logo.
  - ✗ Changing the proportions of the logo.
  - ✗ Changing the font-face of the logo.
